Conversations with Bobby: From Foster Child to Corporate Executive

By Bob Danzig

In this intensely personal book, Bob Danzig reconnects with the foster child within him by reflecting on how both the joyous and sad experiences of his childhood helped create his adult life's most fulfilling moments. Conversations with Bobby reminds foster children that their roots are their source of growth and that despite their childhoods they have it within them to find happiness and success. This book is a tribute to foster parents, social workers, families, and friends that reach out to young children every day. CD included.

Foster/Adopt PRIDE Preservice Materials

The PRIDE (Parent Resources for Information, Development, and Education) program is designed to strengthen the quality of family foster care and adoption services by providing a standardized framework for the competency-based recruitment, preparation, and selection of foster and adoptive parents and for foster parent in-service training and ongoing professional development.

The content of the product is consistent with the CWLA Standards of Excellence for Family Foster Care, which specify the competencies and training approach provided by the PRIDE program.

PRIDE Preservice, PRIDE CORE, and PRIDE Specialized and Advanced Training are all designed to teach knowledge and skills in five essential competency categories for foster parents and adoptive parents:

- Protecting and nurturing children
- Meeting children's developmental needs and addressing developmental delays
- Supporting relationships between children and their families
- Connecting children to safe, nurturing relationships intended to last a lifetime
- Working as a member of a professional team
